Irving James "Jim" Lagneaux, 66, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, died Saturday, March 24, 2018 at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics surrounded by his loving family.

Memorial services will be held 3:00 p.m. Thursday, March 29, 2018 at the Cedar Memorial Park Chapel of Memories. Visitation will be held from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. Wednesday evening at the Cedar Memorial Park Funeral Home.

Jim was born September 23, 1951 in Biloxi, Mississippi, the son of Irving James and Mary Catherine (Ramsey) Lagneaux. He served in the active military for three years. Jim graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Engineering from Iowa State University. He was employed at Rockwell Collins and proudly retired in 2015, after 38 years of service.

He married Carol Grinde on July 24, 1976 in Burlington, Iowa. To this union, two children were born. Jim loved motorcycle rides with friends, the family cottage in Spirit Lake, sailing and kayaking, spending time with friends and family in his backyard, working on never-ending house projects, and traveling. Jim was a devoted and loving husband, father, brother, uncle, grandfather, and friend whose memory will be cherished by all who knew and loved him.

Jim is survived by his loving wife Carol of Cedar Rapids, IA; two sons, Ryan (Samantha) Lagneaux of Cedar Rapids, IA; Aaron (Ashly) Lagneaux of North Liberty, IA; four grandchildren, Henry, George, Smith and Brooks; a brother Bob (Sue) Lagneaux of Polk City, IA; sister Carol Duwa of Iowa City, IA; sister-in-law Cathy Vickroy of Norwalk, IA; brother-in-law Dave Grinde of Cedar Rapids, IA; mother-in-law Mary Ann Grinde of Burlington, IA; and nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister Jean, father-in-law Douglas Grinde and brother-in-law Mike Vickroy.

A memorial in Jim's name has been established.
