Obituary

Bonnie Coleen Garmoe, 65, of Burlington died Wednesday, April 18, 2018 at Great River Medical Center in West Burlington. Born June 12, 1952 in LaHarpe, Illinois she was the daughter of Robert L. and Betty Jane (Reynolds) Kemp. She married Lyle Garmoe on February 22, 1975 in Stronghurst, Illinois.

Bonnie was an amazing cook and enjoyed catering and food preparation for various meals, gatherings and BINGO. Her chocolate chip cookies were the best that can be made, along with her "welfare pizzas". She loved being with her family and numerous friends. She was very generous with her time and talents and was known for her one of a kind personality and opinionated nature. Her favorite times were spent watching scary movies, scrolling through Facebook and enjoying Napoli pizza.

She is missed greatly by her husband Lyle Garmoe of Burlington; son Jamey (Jeana) Vancil of Charlotte, NC; daughter Laci (Corey) Ryan of Burlington; three grandchildren, Mariah, Mackenzy and Alisa; great grandson Raiden Thomas; four brothers, Terry (Linda Hanson) Kemp of Burlington, Don (Faye) Kemp of Sperry, Mike (Penny) Kemp of Burlington and Bob (Eneida) Kemp of Temple, TX; numerous nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews; sister-in-law Judy Asher of Wapello; half brother-in-law Orval Kerwood of Port Charlotte, FL and her Yorkie "Tutti".

She was preceded in death by her parents, one child, one grandchild and half-sister Donna Lewis. A memorial has been established.
