

The Burlington Hawk Eye, Tuesday 10 July 2012, Page 7B

Donna L. Wunderlich, 60, of Burlington died Saturday, July 7, 2012, at Great River Medical Center in West Burlington.

Born May 23, 1952, in Burlington, she was the daughter of Eugene and Rosalie Sodegren Wolbert. She married Gary Wunderlich. They divorced.

Ms. Wunderlich worked 19 years as a clerk at Burlington Medical Center.

He also was a telemarketer for APAC. She graduated from Burlington High School.

She enjoyed fishing, time at the cabin, watching movies, having her nails manicured and reading the Bible. Her favorite verse was Psalm 91.

Survivors include one son, Justin Wunderlich of Burlington; one brother, Dave Wolbert of Sperry; one nephew; and one niece.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Visitation will be from noon to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Lunning Chapel in Burlington, where family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m.

The funeral for Ms. Wunderlich will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Lunning Chapel, with the Rev. Preston Smith officiating. Burial will be in Aspen Grove Cemetery in Burlington.

A memorial has been established.

